Tucson: UA4Food combines the efforts of University of Arizona students, faculty and staff to fight hunger. Proceeds from the 15th year of the UA4Food Drive will benefit the Community Food Bank of Southern Arizona’s hunger relief programs. The UA4Food Drive is a program of The University of Arizona Office of Community Relations and is supported by the Marshall Foundation. In 2018 UA4Food collected 2,586 pounds of non-perishable food items. Find out more about this year’s events at www.ua4food.arizona.edu.

Several organizations on campus will conduct individual food drives throughout the school year. Organizations and dates for the food drives follow:
